

VALKANIA

Balkan Rhythm'n'Blues band from London

Valkania is a London-based trio blending Balkan folk traditions with blues-inflected rock. Originally active from 2010 to 2017 as an acoustic band featuring bouzouki and acoustic guitar, Valkania returns after a nine-year hiatus in a new electric format of guitar, bass and drums. The format is suited to clubs, grassroots venues and amplified live settings.

The repertoire combines original compositions with reworked traditional, rock and classical pieces. Shaped by asymmetrical rhythms, modal colours and improvisational interplay, it includes an extensive instrumental repertoire alongside songs performed in several languages.

Live Show

Valkania currently performs a 60-minute set that moves from lyrical ballads to high-energy rhythmic material. The repertoire centres on the band's Balkan Rhythm'n'Blues Fusion identity, creating a continuous musical arc rather than simply presenting a sequence of unrelated songs.
